These alterations are a bore; no money do we add to store, and think space gained enough, than each department calls for more, wants twice as much as heretofore, which makes it pretty rough—ON PRICES.

Our Sale was Bound to Create a Great Furor.

which has been the most successful reduction-sale of DRY GOODS ever held by any Richmond firm, and which has now been in progress two weeks, during which time goods have been first considered how cheaply we can afford to sell it, and next at what figures our competitors are offering it.
